This Week's PICTURE SHOW—AP Newsfeatures.

AP PHOTOGRAPHER BOB SCOTT wrote from Denver that he enjoyed every minute which he spent putting together this photo essay. "This is my bag, shapes and shadows and bits of beauty that abound all around us if one wants to spend a few minutes in search of it. The pictures are the result of an hour spent in a Denver junk yard . . . I saw these situations and they appealed to me for what they offered. Nothing was staged or moved in any way to offer better composition . . . just the movement of the camera to make the sun work in highlighting the wanted areas."

Calendar of Events

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 27

The Hope Country Club will have a fall dance, Saturday, September 27, from 8:30 to 1 a.m. Host couples will be Mr. and Mrs. John Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Monty Monts, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Reynard.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 30

The Jett B. Graves Class of the First United Methodist Church will have a potluck supper at the church Tuesday, September 30 at 7 p.m. Hostesses are Mesdames: Roy Stephenson, Graydon Anthony, Hazel Castle, K.G. Hamilton, David Griffin, and Leon Prescott.

On Tuesday, September 30, Den 1, Pack 92 of Brookwood school will meet at the Patton home, 504 N. Elm for their meeting at 7:30 p.m. All parents are asked to come and bring their own lawn chairs for the space derby.

SENIOR CLUB MEETS

The Haber - Young - Williams Club of Senior Citizens met Wednesday afternoon, September 24, 1969, in the Community Room of the Douglas Building, 720 Texas Street.

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Jewel Burns, acting president. Mrs. Burns also gave the devotional taken from the 100th Psalm.

After the roll was called and the minutes read and approved, Mrs. Ollie Martin read a short poem.

Following a display and discussion of handcrafts, made by the members, several games of bingo were played.

Before the conclusion of the meeting refreshments of cold drinks and sandwiches were served.

The next meeting will be a luncheon meeting on Wednesday, October 8, 1969, at 11:30 a.m., in the Douglas Building. All members are urged to be present.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Rottel

NOW IT'S "WHAT IS A SERVICE GIRL?"

Dear Helen: Here's another one for your series.

WHAT IS A SERVICE GIRL? There comes a time in every girl's life when she must lose something very dear to her heart, her boy friend, and for girls like us it's usually because the man with the striped pants and tall hat calls our boys to duty for their country.

When he just gets his orders, you find yourself a little excited, a guy in uniform is always appealing. And all that time on your own, being able to see your girl friends again, and going out stag — it's all so exciting. But then, as it gets nearer to the time he must leave for basic training, you cram months into days and minutes into hours, and already you're feeling lonesome and sad.

Then he leaves. It's only for six weeks, you tell yourself and, of course, he says he'll write every day. There's always an enormous scene: Mother's hugs, father's orders and good wishes, numerous handshakes and your tears and farewell kisses.

The lonesome days now begin; the nights are worse. You have terrible dreams. Every day you run to the mallman (did you ever stop to think, we Service girls practically attack him for our mail?). Usually about two weeks go by before we hear, and he probably says:

"Darling, I really hate this place, the food is lousy, they work us too hard and I hardly get any sleep. It's like prison."

Your reaction is typically, "I hope he's not too tired or skinny, and darn Uncle Sam for taking my guy!"

Before you know it, basic is over, and you've got a wonderful 15 days together. This period is usually broken up with his friends, family and you, in that order.

Then again it's time for him to go, and out of nowhere that miserable letter from him comes, telling you he's going to Vietnam. Right there your heart is numb and your hands grow cold. Why him? He's only a kid! Another leave, but this one is different from the rest because it's usually spent with you and his family only.

Of course the parting scene is worst of all. It's probably the worst moment in your life. Immediately you begin counting the days till he returns. Every song, every familiar place brings tears. The first four months are the hardest. If you can see these through, you're a true Service girl.

His letters are wonderful, with always that sort of loneliness and sadness. You realize that without him there's nothing for you. Maybe it's out of loyalty, but for a year there's no other guy. I prefer to feel it's because we love these guys with all our hearts.

Finally you hit that precious day. Now start getting ready. Try to lose those few extra pounds, put back the glow in your cheeks and the stars in your eyes, cause he's on his way home.

Remember, girls, be patient with him. He's just spent a year in Hell, and it's a big adjustment for him to make. Chances are he'll be irritable and nervous and probably very jumpy. But always know, underneath, he's the same guy who left you a year ago and he loves you as much as you love him.

Your man is home to stay! — JUST ANOTHER SERVICE GIRL

Lightning isn't supposed to strike twice in the same place but we do know of a duplicate expert who worked two Vienna Coups against the same victims in two different tournaments.

The perpetrator of these coups did so under two names. The first time she was Ruth Farnham of Stamford, Conn. She married Gordon Gibson of the same town recently and executed the second coup while Gordon was dummy.

Gordon's one-club opening was minimum indeed and Ruth had visions of a grand slam but settled for six no-trump when she found that a king was missing.

Offhand, it appears that seven clubs would be a better contract, since a ruff of a spade would yield a 13th trick but the 5-1 club break would take care of that grand slam.

There are 12 top tricks at Smartly tailored double-breasted toppers that transit from fall to winter make fashion news when they have the look of leather and are teamed with denim. Beige leatherlike vinyl topper (left) worn with denim bell bottoms combines style with practicality. Coat is waterproof and pile-lined. Mini-length coat (right) in vinyl has strap cuffs, patch pockets and Edwardian collar. These Tower Fashion designs are in vinyl by General Tire.

Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD — (NEA) — Nobody made any noise about it. It just happened, which shows you how times have changed around this town.

Jim Brown took Jacqueline Bisset in his arms, embraced her, kissed her, told her sweet nothings.

They were supposed to be married, in this scene in a film called "Grasshopper." The beautiful white girl and the handsome black man. Mixed marriage. And in a pictured destined for general release.

"It couldn't have been done five years ago," Jim said, later.

Maybe not even two years ago. It's been gradual, this change, but here it is.

"Nobody is making any fuss about it," he said. "We're supposed to be in Vegas for the picture, part of the Vegas crowd, and this thing happens in Vegas all the time. I've seen it a lot there, even though Vegas is a very prejudiced town. I don't like Vegas much. A synthetic town."

Actually, the business of a mixed marriage is not a big thing in the story. Mostly, this is Jackie Bisset's picture. The story of a disintegrating girl. By the time she's 22, when the picture ends, she's had it. Washed up. Nothing left.

"I know some girls like her," Jackie Bisset says. "They're bored with everything. They've tried everything already, and nothing is kicking any more. They have no desires for anything permanent. That's not me, at all, but I can understand it."

"I couldn't play something I didn't understand."

The two boy-wonder producers — 30-year-old Jerry Belson and 32-year-old Gary Marshall — understand it, too. They saw a picture of a girl like her in a magazine, a girl tossed into a waste can in New York like some used-up liquor bottle, her eyes alive but dead, too. They wanted to do a picture about it.

"I know what they mean," says the director, Jerry Paris. "I have young kids. I see them tasting everything so young, and Ruth (his wife) and I worry about it, worry that they'll have no excitement left when they're in their twenties."

"That's what this picture is about."

It makes sense, a story like this, characters like these. But there's more sense in the company, because the original director (Don Medford) was replaced after 10 days. Paris was in Europe, after finishing "Vi-va Max," and all set for a leisurely ship ride home.

They called him at 2 a.m., asked him to fly to Los Angeles to take over "Grasshopper."

"By noon, I was on the plane," he says. "I got here on Friday, read the script over the weekend, started shooting on Monday. It's a bad way to do a picture. I'm really just winging it as I go."

The others say he's winging well. But Jackie Bisset is a little disgusted with the whole scene.

"It's awful," she says. "Every time I hear about a change of directors I think, 'That's Hollywood for you.' It only happens here."

Positive Identification To Credit Cards

Shown here are the front and back of the new photo bank credit card being issued to millions of BankAmericard and Master Charge cardholders throughout the country. The new card produced in 60 seconds with the Polaroid ID-2 Land Identification System makes it virtually impossible for anyone other than the actual cardholder to use the card.

Ask any banker, and he's likely to tell you that within ten years your cash and even your checkbook may be obsolete.

Cash purchases are rapidly becoming a thing of the past, and banking experts predict that the day is not far off when virtually all of your purchases will be made with credit cards or their electronic equivalents.

But the advent of the checkless society and the popularity explosion of credit cards of every type, particularly bank cards, has created many problems for both the average consumer and bankers alike—specifically in the area of fraud.

Many banks launching credit card programs issue cards unsolicited from mailing lists or customer lists owned or purchased by the individual bank. The recipient is given the opportunity either to destroy the card on receipt or accept and use it.

Therein lies the problem. Regardless of his decision, the recipient faces a strong possibility that the card bearing his name will be lost or stolen; that his signature will be forged; and that purchases will be made with the card. This fraudulent use of credit cards has exploded into a multi-million dollar business in recent years.

Many states have adopted legislation absolving the intended recipient of an unsolicited credit card from any liability prior to his acceptance of the card. However, most of these statutes do not relieve the cardholder of at least a minimum liability if the card is lost or stolen and used prior to his notifying the issuing bank.

Even if the holder gets off, the bank bears any losses. There's a simple, inexpensive solution to the problem—one which provides positive identification for the cardholder as well as security to banks and merchants. And it's being adopted by hundreds of banks throughout the country which are affiliated with the nation's two largest bank credit card programs, BankAmericard and Master Charge.

The solution makes fraudulent use of credit cards virtually impossible by guaranteeing that the user is actually the authorized card holder. This has been accomplished by incorporating a maximum security identification card, complete with color photograph of the bearer into the standard credit card. The front of the new BankAmericard and Master Charge cards appears no different from standard cards, but the photo always ready to lend a helping hand, or to give an extra portion — all if necessary. When the crop is ripe, the reaping done and the bounties stored away, do you ever stop to thank God? Maybe your inventory still shows all you ever possessed. Better realize it all came from God and give back a portion. How is it right now with you and yours? It is reaping time but what will your harvest be? Do you support His cause, His church, or, are you one of the would-be self-sufficient? Why not begin right now to use your harvest to help bring in the Kingdom?

REAPING

"And they took the fruit of the land in their hands and brought it down to us." Deut. 1:25. Isn't that just like God's children...

HOPE NEWSPAPER HISTORY:
 The 1929 consolidation joined the two principal newspaper lines dating back to within five years of Hope's incorporation in 1875.

 1899 — Star of Hope founded as a weekly by Claude Mc-Corkle; converted to an evening daily by his son, Ed. McCorkle, publishing until the 1929 consolidation.

 The opposition line:
 1880 — Hope News founded by Lowry Brothers.

 1883 — Sold to Withers & Johnson, name changed to Hope Telegraph.

 1883 — Later in same year resold to Claude McCorkle and renamed Hope Mercury.

 1884 — Sold to James H. Betts, who named it Hope Gazette, under which name it was published continuously until 1922, published by Betts, J.L. Tullis, and Col. W.W.
 Folsom the last-named dying in 1916.

 1916 — Purkins & Gates bought the weekly Gazette and made it a companion paper to their new daily, Arkansas Evening Herald
 — but both papers suspended in 1922.

 1926 — Plant was revived by Curtis Cannon as the weekly
 Hempstead County Review.
 1927 — Cannon sold plant to D.A. Gean, who established the morning Hope Daily Press.

 1929 — C. E. Palmer and A.H.
 Washburn consolidated The Star and the Press as Hope Star, with Palmer as president and Washburn secretary-treasurer.

 1957 — Following Mr. Palmer's death Mrs. Palmer became president.

 1969 — With Mrs. Palmer's retirement from Star Publishing Co. Washburn became 76 per cent owner and president — balance 24 per cent being held by Texarkana Newspapers, Inc.

YOUR DENTAL HEALTH

Allergic Reactions Call For Instant Treatment

By WILLIAM LAWRENCE, D.D.S.

 Allergy is a frequent cause of abrupt, rapid inflamma-tions and swellings in and around the mouth. Usually affected are the lips, tongue and tonsils, but gums and areas covered by dentures are vulnerable, too.

 While many people are well-acquainted with al-lergy's oft bizarre symptoms, the true nature of this condition is not well understood.

 Probably everyone at some time in his life is affected by an allergic reaction, and vast numbers of people are affected often, many continuously. The sudden itchy feeling of gums and tongue after brushing with a particular toothpaste, or eating peaches, melon, eggs, fish or pork; or the dramatic swelling, usually a delayed reaction, which follows shortly after ingestion of drugs, especially the common ones, i.e., aspirin, penicillin, are all too well-known to allergy sufferers.

 What's the explanation?
 Remember the antibodies, the good guys, who fight invading bacteria and viruses?
 These antibodies turn into bad guys when directing their "energies" against inflammations produced by food, drug, or pollen to which you are allergic. They worsen the inflammation and promote the release of chemicals such as histamine.

 Histamine is ordinarily a valuable and useful body substance, but in allergic reactions it becomes a toxic agent. That's why "anti" his-tamines are used to treat symptoms of allergy.

 There are many types of antihistamines. Some don't require a prescription; however, anyone suffering from repeated symptoms should

POT LUCK?—Current concert by the Rolling Stones has some folks wondering what Mick Jagger's got that John Lennon lacks. The Beatles balladeer was kept out of the country, branded unsafe for American consumption, supposedly because of a pot bust. But Mick's been busted, too, and nobody's kicking. We're all for the Stones being here but why bug the Beatles? Maybe John's got a right to feel that pain in his palms.

HEADLINE STUFF—Latest news-inspired disc comes from Date Records, where engineer Don Meehan and Wally Gold, who recently produced La Streisand's new LP, teamed to cut "Sir, My Men Refuse to Go," which deals with a Vietnam incident that made the front pages. Mee-han does the narration, sings all 10 background voices and plays all six instruments. Radio stations may balk at this one (too controversial, no doubt), just like they did with John Stewart's "Armstrong," the most misunderstood tune to come along in many a moon.

UNDERGROUND TURN-ON—World's heaviest light show can be found (if you dig deep enough) not in New York or LA or the like, but in Stanton, Mo., where Lester Dill squirts
 the hues on a 70-foot-high, 35-foot-thick rock formation way down in the Meramec Caverns. Uses 62 different lighting effects, too. Take that, Fillmore East.

STILL MORE FILLMORE
 —In an effort to make Tuesday night a little more lively, Bill Graham has switched on a series of Audition-Jam Nights at Fillmore East in New York. Idea is to give focus to the breeding, development and discovery of new talent and that includes light shows. Interested bands and light artists can get more details by calling PARTY TIP—For girls from Ellen Peck, the all-girl (and then some) author of "How to Get a Teen-Age Boy and What to Do With Him When You Get Him." Says Ellen: "Don't be the sexiest ond sexiest. Looking second sexiest gives you a couple of advantages. Especially over the girl who looks sexiest... she's going to make boys feel slightly self-conscious about approaching her... also, do you know how the

Quick Cats Roll Over Smackover

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Writer

The monster is on the loose. With devastating quickness the Bobcats humbled the Smackover Buckaroos 43-2 last night in a 4-AA inter-divisional clash at Hammond Stadium.

Bobcat quarterback Ronnie Massanelli hit his form, completing six of eight passes for 118 yards and three touchdowns, as Hope moved to 3-1 for the season with a three-game winning streak. Smackover fell to 2-2 for the month, and the Bucks have lost their last two games by a total of 77-2 on the scoreboard.

Most importantly the Cats got the big plays early when they needed them, both running and passing the ball. And with complete domination and momentum in possession, the outcome was never for a second in doubt.

After taking the opening kickoff, the Bobcats quickly showed they could move against the split-six defense of Smackover, which frequently was an eight-man line. With third and eight at the Hope 29, fullback Gary Jones bulled for the first down at the 37, then took the pigskin again and mapped eleven yards to the 48.

After that, Artis Martin started a scoreless night on which he still was impressive for 101 yards on 19 carries. His cutting gains helped the drive along, but Massanelli hit a pass to David Still for 15 yards on a 4th and nine gamble to keep the drive going.

From the 22, though, Artis missed connections with Massanelli on a quick handoff, and the Buckaroos jumped on it at their own 23. Now confident and overpowering early, the Bobcat defense stopped Smackover on three downs and forced a punt.

Butch Wilkins then saw the snap go high over his head, and when he retrieved it in the end zone Bobcat Jessie Henry was there along with Jim Alford and Calvin Willis to tackle him for a safety. That made it 2-0 with 6:34 left in the first quarter, and the Bucks kicked off from their 20.

Starting now from the Hope 47, Massanelli guided the offense 53 yards in nine plays for the initial TD. The big play of the drive was a 23-yard aerial from Massanelli to David Still, which carried from the 40 to the 18 in Smackover territory.

With 4th down and goal, the Cats still were six yards out. However, the Massanelli-Still combination worked again for the TD, and Ronny Brown's kick made 9-0 with 2:11 still left in the quarter.

After fumbling the ensuing kickoff, Smackover started at its own five and was stopped cold. With 3rd and 13 at the two, Wilkins quick-kicked poorly, and Bobcat defensive back Randy Still returned it from the Bucks 25 to the 14.

Artis broke outside and went all the way to the two, then Gary Jones ran it over for his first six-pointer on the last play of the quarter. Brown kicked it through, and Hope sat on a 16-0 spread.

Down but not out, the Buckaroos took over at their 26. QB Bruce Huteson threw a screen pass to end Mike Bryant, who flashed up the left side to the 44 for a first down. That was all, though, and three plays later Wilkins backed up to punt once more.

The kick went to the Bobcat 25, but offsetting penalties brought it all back. This time Wilkins kicked to Artis Martin at the Hope 13, and the fleet halfback raced up to his 47 yard line.

With first down, Massanelli rolled right and hit David Still again, this one covering 53 yards and another touchdown. Brown's kick was successful, and it was 23-0 with 9:36 left in the half.

Later, as the half drew to a close, Artis took another punt and rambled 34 yards to the Smackover 42, and the Cats were in business with 2:28 left in the half.

The Bucks stood up and forced a 4th and eight play from their 37, and the Bobcats once again came up with the big play. For the second time this year, Artis Martin took a pitchout and threw a halfback pass, this one for 29 yards to Davis Still at the eight, and things were settled.

On second down Massanelli rolled left, and found end Lee Davis open in the left flat for an easy 10-yard scoring play. Davis had eluded everyone, and took it in for his first touchdown of the season. For the fourth time, Brown split the uprights, and Hope led it 30-0 at halftime.

As the Smackover defense was keyed to Artis Martin, Coach Ronnie Higgins inserted Thomas Lloyd into the game early in the third segment, and he adjusted well to pace another scoring march. This one covered 46 yards on seven plays, and Lloyd himself scrambled the final 12 yards to paydirt. This time Brown missed wide to the left, but 36-0 was plenty adequate.

Now Hope's second-team offense entered, playing Tim White and Clifton Peery at the ends, Hiram Reynolds and Richard Butler at tackle, Rodney Burke and Jessie Henry at guards, and Richard Stuart at center. Tommy Frazier was the quarterback, Ray Wheeling ran at tailback, Thomas Lloyd shifted to fullback, and Terry Vines manned the flankerback post.

This crew played a good bit in the final half, and also Winston Franks and Bubba Powers made it into the game on defense. There were others, too, as the entire squad dressed out saw action.

Though it was unnecessary, defensive halfback Ray Wheeling pilfered a Huteson pass with 11:18 to play and somehow made it the 40 remaining yards to the end zone. Brown made his last kick good, and it was 43-0.

Smackover scored on a safety in the final three minutes, as Bobcat safety Sidney Waller intercepted at the Hope two and was tackled in the end zone by Buck end Glenn Jackson.

Martin's 101 yards led both teams, but Thomas Lloyd also recorded 56 yards on five carries for the Cats. Roger Newton totaled 25 more on four runs, and Gary Jones netted 31 on eight plays. Fullback Wilkins led Smackover with 10 for 34 yards but everyone else brought the total down to 17 yards.

Defensively, all of Hope's first unit was magnificent. The crew of Harris, McWilliams, Brown, McQueen, Willis, Quillin, Rock (along with Alford), Norton, Rank, and Wheeling, added to their confidence while the offense made it easier. Meanwhile, Buckaroos James Morris, Mike Bryant, Tad Pigage, and Bobby Treischmann did well against the Bobcat offense.

And so the "Happiness 1969" campaign is 3-0, but the test comes next Friday, in the 4-AA Western Division opener at Maivern's Homecoming. It should be a real bruiser, but with offensive confidence and a near-flawless defense one has to be confident of the Bobcats' future. The "B" team gets next Monday night off, so Hope has a full week to prepare.

Taking them one at a time, everyone should stay happy.

The Shape of Things to Come?

The French may have a word for it, but they're going to be hard-pressed to find that right word and express it gracefully to airline stewardesses. Aging stewardesses on Air France had threatened a strike if the company's automatic retirement age of 40 was not relaxed. Air France officials had taken the view that some portions of some stewardesses were too relaxed after 40 to make continued flying status attractive.

Now the objecting ladies have won their point, in part by agreeing to continue to throw curves. The new automatic retirement age will be 50. But flight status for stewardesses between ages 40 and 50 will depend upon the examinations and judgments of what news stories rather appropriately termed a "mixed" commission. In other words, this new special condition will depend upon the condition of the stewardesses in question.

Airlines, in the United States at least, have had problems choosing between efficiency and attractiveness, though the two are by no means mutually exclusive. For our part, we'll take a little efficient service any day. But that point of view may only reflect the fact that the average age around this office is easing out toward some post-40 figure.

But, young or old, we'll have no part of that "mixed" French commission which must rule on the "attractiveness" of stewardesses past 40 who still want to fly. What man of any age has ever developed enough courage and poise to tell a lady she is no longer pretty enough to do her job?—Charlotte (N.C.) Observer

Tastes

School boys in Germany say they prefer the texts of songs by the Beatles to the works of Shakespeare. The songs are easier to read. This isn't surprising. We are sure that in America most youngsters would agree. After all, poetry—unless it is obvious in its point and proselytic in its language; Rod McKuen's, for example—is not a popular medium in the 20th Century. In "Troilus and Cressida," the Bard offers several good lines, including one which sums up our view of those who prefer the Beatles to Shakespeare: "He has not so much brain as ear-wax."—Atlanta (Ga.) Opposition to Appointment of Haynsworth

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell contended today opposition to Judge Clement F. Haynsworth's nomination to the Supreme Court has been couched in generalities, and predicted he would be promptly confirmed.

"If we had put up one of the 12 apostles," Mitchell said, "it would have been the same."

Mitchell discussed Haynsworth's nomination in an interview in which he declared that all of the arguments against the South Carolina judge were expected.

He said he discussed possible conflict of interest charges "the first time I ever talked to Judge Haynsworth" more than two months before President Nixon announced the nomination.

Asked whether there has been any impropriety in Haynsworth's actions, Mitchell replied, "Certainly not."

The Senate Judiciary Committee, about to wind up its confirmation hearings on Haynsworth, heard a group of hostile witnesses Thursday.

Haynsworth's nomination was based on political considerations and in conflict with equal rights.

Randolph Phillips, chairman of the Committee for a Fair, Honest and Impartial Judiciary, said Nixon's selection of Haynsworth was to repay Southern delegates who supported the president at the Republican convention.

Gary Orfield, an assistant professor of politics and public affairs at Princeton University, said the role of the Supreme Court will be crucial in years ahead in enforcing civil rights laws.

Withdrawal of an additional 35,000 troops will bring U.S. strength in Vietnam to the lowest level in more than two years. Figures are for the high numbers of troops actually in Vietnam during the indicated periods, usually 1 or 2 per cent below force ceilings set by the Pentagon. The ceiling at the start of this year was 549,500 and is currently 524,500. Ceiling when the latest withdrawal is completed Dec. 15: 484,000.

Colleges to Meet With HEW Director

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Presidents of state-supported colleges and universities and representatives of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare are to meet Oct. 8 to discuss state compliance with desegregation guidelines.

Leon E. Paneta, director of the Civil Rights Division of HEW, is scheduled to attend. HEW has rejected the state's original desegregation proposal because it lacked an adequate plan to place whites in predominantly Negro Arkansas AM & N College at Pine Bluff and has ordered Arkansas to draw up another set of guidelines.

Plane Plan Raises Issue of Priority

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Bill Alexander, D-Ark., and Dr. John Easley, president of Phillips County Community College at Helena, Ark., said Thursday a study would begin in the next 10 days on establishing a river academy at Helena.

CWO Carter James, training coordinator for the Marine division of the U. S. Army Transportation School at Ft. Eustis, Va., will conduct the study.

The study is being financed by a $20,340 grant from the Manpower Development Training Administration of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Actual planning of the program for the river academy is expected to begin early next month with the bulk of the work expected to be completed by Christmas.

The academy would train persons for inland waterways industry.

Luxury Hotel for Little Rock

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Herbert R. Linick of Miami, Fla., confirmed Thursday that plans are under way to construct a luxury hotel, with convention facilities for 1,250 or more, at Little Rock.

Must Learn About the City Limits

MILTON-FREEWATER, Ore. (AP) — An interoffice memo at a city police station advises: "Members of this department will familiarize themselves with the city limits and quit arguing with the taxpayers as to where they live."

Rules State Can Aid Dental Students

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The attorney general's office re-examined an opinion it had issued earlier and said today that the state could spend funds appropriated by Act 146 of 1969 to assist Arkansas dental students in Howard University in Washington, D.C.

The attorney general's office had said earlier that Howard University was not eligible for Act 426 funds because it was not a state-supported dental school.

The attorney general's office said today, however, that upon reexamining Act 426, it found that the words "state-supported" had been deleted from the act by the House of Representatives.

"We have concluded that the specific omission of the words 'state-supported' indicates a strong legislative intent that Act 426 funds may be used in affording educational opportunities at dental schools other than 'state-supported' dental schools," the attorney general's office said in an opinion given to Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller.

4 Filipino Men Get Death Sentences

MANILA (AP) — A Manila judge sentenced four Filipino men today to death in the electric chair for kidnapping a Chinese student last year. Another man and a woman were acquitted for lack of evidence.

The kidnappers demanded $15,000 ransom for Yang Wai Chik, 22. Police rescued the young man after his family paid the kidnappers $250 in marked bills as an advance on the amount demanded.

Indicted for Income Tax Evasion

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Harry A. Pittard, 56, owner of a North Little Rock real estate development firm, has been indicted on six counts of income tax evasion and failing to file income tax returns.

Pittard posted $2,500 bond Thursday with the clerk of the U.S. District Court at Little Rock on the indictment returned by a federal Grand Jury.

The indictment charges Pittard with attempting to evade $9,485 in income taxes for 1962 and $6,614 for 1963 on joint returns filed for himself and his wife. The indictment also alleges that Pittard failed to file income tax returns for both 1964 and 1965 although he had an income of more than $100,000 during those two years.

Pittard also is charged in the indictment with filing tax returns for 1962 and 1963 that he did not believe to be true and correct.

Pittard was general manager of the construction division of Winrock Enterprises, Inc., from 1957 until July 1, 1965. He organized his own firm after leaving Winrock. Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller was chairman of the board of Winrock Enterprises during the period of Pittard's employment.

Canadian Wheat Going to Red China

WINNIPEG, Man. (AP) — Canadian wheat will start moving out of Pacific ports for Red China again next month under a new agreement to sell Peking $135 million worth of the grain in the next year.

Trade Minister Jean Luc Pepin announced Thursday night that a team from the Canadian government on through Vancouver and over Pacific ports, but that 4 million bushels would be shipped through ports on the St. Lawrence and the East Coast.

China has become Canada's biggest wheat customer in the past few years.

Names Trigger Man in Green Beret Case

By RICHARD PYLE
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — The Army disclosed more details of its murder and conspiracy case against six Green Beret officers today, naming a 27-year-old intelligence specialist as the trigger man in the execution of a reported Vietnamese spy.

Against strong objections from defense attorneys that it would prejudice the case, military officials made public the charges in which all six men are accused of plotting and carrying out the slaying last June 20.

The documents named Capt. Thomas Francis Marasco, 27, of Bloomfield, N.J., as the man who fired the pistol shot that killed Thai Khac Chuyen after it was discovered that he was a double agent working for the North Vietnamese as well as for the Americans.

The three top-ranking officers in the case—Col. Robert B. Rheault, 43, of Vineyard Haven, Mass., former commander of the 3,000 Special Forces troops in Vietnam, and Majors Thomas C. Middleton Jr., 29, of Jefferson, S.C. and David E. Crew, 33, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa—were accused of the murder even though the charges said they did not have a part in the actual killing.

Their trial awaits the outcome of the general court-martial, now scheduled for Oct. 20, in which Marasco and Capt. Leonard J. Brumley, 27, of Duncan, Okla., and Budge E. Williams, 27, of Athens, Ga., face similar charges.

No charge sheets were issued for CW2 Edward M. Boyle of New York City, or Sgt. IC Alvin Smith Jr. of Naples, Ia.

According to military sources, the two have been declared immune from the original charges so that they may testify against the six officers. If they don't they face possible five-year jail terms.

Boyle, however, was named in the accusations against the others—his part in the incident being that "in order to effect the object of the conspiracy."

Thursday, Oct. 2, Marks U.S.-Owned Firms Seized by Bolivia

By MARY ANITA LASETER
Star Feature Writer

Next Thursday, October 2 marks the 50th anniversary of the first football team in Hope which used the name Bobcats. The coach of this team was Hugh D. Clark, now of Greenbrier, under his guidance the Bobcats were formed and chose the name because they were small in both size and number, but, nevertheless, they were tough.

According to the coach, there were never more than 16 men in suits at any time. Four of the original team members still make their home in Hope. They are Hamilton Hanegan, Harry Shiver, Comer Boyett, and Earl O'Neal.

Hamilton Hanegan was unable to participate the first part of that first Bobcat season due to illness, but he played a bang-up game as guard in two games at the close of the season. He recently retired from Ritchie Grocery Co.

Harry Shiver was always in the game hitting the line with good results from his position as a guard. He is a retired plumbing contractor today.

Comer Boyett was the captain of the team, and his hard playing made him a star right half back. He is now an employee of the Post Office Department.

Earl O'Neal capably filled the position of fullback and was a valuable member of the squad. He continued his football career after high school graduation by playing on the Hendrix College team. Today, he operates the Hope Brick Works.

Willie Warren, Harvey Betts, and Barton Dean all played the position of end. The present whereabouts of Barton Dean are unknown. Harvey Betts is deceased, and Willie Warren lives in Little Rock where he was retired from the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co.

"Wee Willie" would have been a good name for Warren as he was only 13 years of age when he started as a Bobcat. In three seasons he developed into one of the finest high school players Hope ever had.

Charles Bridewell, outstanding center, was twice named to the all-state team. Before his death a few years ago, he was Mayor of Morrilton and had a wholesale grocery company there.

Earl Spencer held the head work position on the team. He had played football for several years as could be seen by his spectacular playing. Before retirement, he was with an automobile credit association in Dallas. He still makes his home in that Texas city.

Goodlett Dildy didn't play until the latter part of the season when he moved to Hope from Nashville. However, he was very good as a halfback. He is another former Bobcat who is retired and lives in Texarkana. He was in the oil business.

Arli Jordan was a utility man and a good one. He makes his home in Nashville, Tenn., where he was a traveling man.

If you have counted the named players above, you realize only 15 have been listed of the 16 mentioned at the beginning. That extra man varied, as any boy in the school was apt to be called upon to scrimmage with the team. They did so cheerfully, and the team was extremely grateful to them all.

Later in October a reunion is being planned for the local athletes of 1919-20 including football, baseball, basketball, and track men. Details will be announced soon.

Will Tell of Projects Hit by Cutback

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — G. Rockefeller's former legal adviser, says he expects to be able to inform the governor by this weekend what federal projects in Arkansas would be affected by President Nixon's 75 per cent cutback in federal construction.

Rockefeller announced Thursday that he had appointed Elsie to study the cutback.

Elsie said that the effect of Nixon's order would not be too severe in Arkansas if it is confined to purely federally financed projects. He also said Nixon would let governors have some voice in the cutbacks.

Nixon ordered the reduction in new contracts for direct federal construction projects such as post office and federal office buildings. He also called on states to make a similar cutback in construction projects financed in part by the federal government.

Labor Party Fails to Win in S. Africa

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — The anti-apartheid Labor party has failed to win a majority in South Africa's new Colored Persons Representative Council.

The nation's mulattos, known here as "coloreds," went to the polls Wednesday to elect 40 representatives to the 60-member council. The government will appoint the other 20 members.

Returns Thursday night showed that the Labor party, the only party that opposes the government's apartheid policy of racial segregation, won 24 seats. It needed 31 seats to control the council because the 20 government appointees can be expected to vote with pro-apartheid groups.

The Federal Colored People's party won nine seats, the National Colored People's party won one seat each, and one seat went to an independent. Four seats were undecided.

Laborites said they still considered the election a victory because most leaders of segregationist parties failed to win seats.

The council has theoretically been given the responsibility of representing South Africa's 1.3 million mulattos, but the government has provided it with no real power.

LA PAZ, Bolivia (AP) — In its first official act, Bolivia's new military junta canceled a law under which a U.S.-owned oil company has been operating. Gen. Alfredo Ovando Candia, who seized power Friday from President Adolfo Siles Salinas, met with his new cabinet for three hours and then announced the annulment of the nation's petroleum code. The code granted Bolivian Gulf Oil Co. ownership of oil resources and set up a plan of profit-sharing with the state.

Ovando said the legislation was drafted by a New York law firm and was prejudicial to Bolivian interests and "a restriction on the income the state should receive from profits and royalties."

He said the future of the company, a subsidiary of Gulf Oil Corp., had not been decided. He did not rule out the possibility of nationalizing the firm's properties, but said "those are details that will be studied later on."

Under the petroleum code, 33.5 per cent of Bolivian Gulf's profits and 11 per cent of its wellhead production went to the government. Company spokesmen said Gulf Oil invested about $140 million in Bolivian oil production from 1957 to 1968.

Ovando said in a message to the peasants that his government would "make more profound the Bolivian land reform" of 1953. And he issued a statement pledging to secure national sovereignty over the sources of production, improve the already nationalized mining industry, promote heavy industry, establish "a nationalistic economic policy, and protect workers' rights."

Ovando, 52, commander in chief of Bolivia's armed forces and the front-runner in a presidential campaign that was just getting under way, seized power from Siles while the president was in Santa Cruz for a celebration.

Siles later took off from Santa Cruz in a small plane, presumably to go into exile in Chile.

$3,293 Paid for 12 Fat Calves Here

The annual fat calf auction was held Friday at Third District Livestock Show the 12 of them brought a total of $3,293.91.

First place exhibitor was Billy Barton of Nashville whose 735 pound steer brought $271.95 from First National Bank of Hope. Brad Joyce of Hope Rt. 2 had the second place winner and Citizens Bank paid him $276.75 for it. Joe Paul Stuart of Nashville exhibited the third place winner and sold it to Hope Livestock Co. for $262.20. It weighed 690 pounds.

No. 4 was shown by Johnny Goodson of Nashville and his 695 pounder brought him $253.67 from Arch Wylie.

The rest in order they were judged: Bruce Joyce of Hope sold his 645 pounder to Anderson-Frazier Ins. of Hope for $274.12; Teddy Souter of Taylor sold his 785 pound steer to The Trading Post and Harold Hendrix for $262.60; Bettie Crow of Camden didn't sell her calf; Renny Chishir of Nashville sold a 695 pounder to Barry's Grocery of Hope for $247.50; Arch Wylie paid $281.47 for a 695 pounder shown by Dan Sullivan of Nashville; Scotty Feemster of Nashville Rt. 4 sold his 775 pound steer to First National Bank of Hope for $279; Hope Livestock Co. bought Elizabeth Barton's (Nashville) steer paying $230.85 for the 715 pounder. Hope Livestock also paid $399.20 to Surry Tobin of DeQueen for a 1,060 pound steer. Barry's Grocery of Hope paid Billy Owen of Camden $275.20 for a 660 pounder.

Thus the 12 sold averaged a price of $274.49.

Barry's Grocery and Market bought four barrows from Harry Hull, Tommy Chambers, Royce Chambers and Billy Owen up to $24 per hundred.

The Livestock Show will come to a close here Saturday night with the final performance of the rodeo and selection of a rodeo queen.
